To the students of Shrewsbury High School,

Use this yearbook to look a r o u n d.

The book you hold in your hands has been carefully crafted by the yearbook staff to capture what life is really like at our school.

As always, you will find photos of each aspect of the high school. But this year, through a survey taken by YOU, we have facts and statistics throughout the book that give you a better idea of what makes SHS unique.

We hope you enjoy (we'll see you around).

What is your favorite

"The friends you make and the connections."

"Everyone is so supportive!"

"The community we are surrounded with, our excellent teachers and endless possibilities. "

"Being able to express yourself in whatever way you want."

"All the incredible people I have met and all of the experiences I have had the opportunity to have. SHS has become my second home in many ways. Not only have I been lucky enough to meet life-long friends, but I have been exposed to so many new interests that I never imagined I'd enjoy!"

part about SHS?

"Everything. The atmosphere, the students, the staff, the facility. It's pretty bomb.com."

"Too many things to choose from."

"The fact that we have such a wide variety of extra-curriculars so you are bound to find a friend somewhere."

"The diversity is amazing, you don't see as many diverse faces at other schools!"

"Opportunity."

"I love how much enthusiasm we have for everything, from sports to music and drama, and everything in between."

Letter From The Principal

Dear Members of the Class of 2014,

It is with great pride that I write this message to you, the graduates of the Class of 2014. During your time here I had the opportunity to watch you grow and mature as you navigated the trials and tribulations of being a high school student. Your experiences over the past four years have contributed to your social, emotional, and intellectual development and have undoubtedly prepared you for life beyond the walls of SHS.

Today, your generation is facing unprecedented challenges and changes to the global environment. All of these challenges will require you to utilize and build upon the skills you acquired through your education. The success in overcoming any of these challenges will require you to employ your communication, collaboration, creativity and critical thinking skills. Your success in facing these challenges will also depend upon your dedication to the task at hand and your resiliency when things do not go as planned. Based upon what I know of you, I am confident that you will meet and overcome the challenges life presents to you.

I hope you enjoy this yearbook and refer to it as you reminisce about your time at Shrewsbury High School. As principal, I am extremely proud of your leadership and the example you have set for our school community. I wish you peace and happiness and hope for nothing but success in your future endeavors.

Congratulations!

Respectfully,
Todd H. Bazydlo

Best Wishes

Mrs. O'Leary,
Thank you for your 50 years of teaching. Your commitment and dedication to SHS is greatly appreciated. The yearbook staff would also like to take this moment to thank you for the 15 years of being a yearbook advisor. We understand the commitment and hard work needed to create great yearbooks!

Thank you,
The 2014 SHS Yearbook Staff

Mrs. O'Leary!

"Throughout her career Mrs. O'Leary has provided students diverse learning opportunities, challenged and developed students thinking, and provided opportunities for students to develop and understand the connections of historical events as they relate to present day events. As a result of her instruction, students are globally minded and well prepared for life beyond the walls of SHS. Mrs. O'Leary is an integral part of our school community and she will be missed!"

Sam,
I know you are going to flourish when you go to college. You're very bright, outgoing and filled with potential. Make the most out of your college experience. It's a cliché to say the coming years are the best years of your life, but take it from me, it holds true. Remember, no matter what you do or where you end up, you can always come to me for help and I'll be there. I love you.

Cheyenne DeLong

Cheyenne,

Memories come flooding back to me as I look back over the years. I want to hold on to you and at the same time watch you fly high and free. You have such spirit and a character all of your own, you definitely are funny, a helper, and you care for other people. You are a doer, and an achiever of what you believe in; even when you say you can't; I know you can. I'm so proud of your dreams and the conviction you have to make those dreams come true. Your world is bright, new and bursting with possibilities. Evolution is going to be a great place for you to start. It's so easy to remember your very first steps and how I held out my hand for you to hold as your sister Briana and your brother Chaz called out for you to come to them. As each year passes you take more and more steps, and some of these will eventually lead you to a life of your own; but always remember that my hand and my heart are forever here for you. You can always call one of your sisters' Katherine or Brie and I am sure you can call on your brother anytime. You will always be my daughter, but I have also discovered in you a rare and precious friend. You have been life's greatest gift to me, and our family and We all love you so much. Live, Love, and Laugh often.

2014 Yearbook Editors

Rachel Sarnie, Olivia Cantin, Brigid Gorman

Thank you so much for your commitment to this year's book!

The endless e-mails, phone calls, meetings and work on the weekends/vacations have clearly paid off! We truly appreciate all that you have done for this book and we hope you look back on this with pride. We went through many transitions with the new publishing company this year, and at times we all thought it was way too much! But with your infectious motivation, determination, and a few laughs the three of you lead us to the end! We hope you can look back on this year with as many smiles and fond memories as we do!

We wish you nothing but the absolute best in all that you do!
Ms. Early and Ms. Siagh

Hope to see the three of you around real

To the Senior members of the Yearbook Staff,
Congratulations and best wishes in your future endeavors! Thanks for all of your hard-work and dedication over the years!
